

Business & Commercial

Our litigation team takes pride in how we support our business clients and the complexity of their needs. We spend time with our clients, getting to know and understand their business operations and cores. This allows us to forecast pitfalls, diagnosis potential problems, and resolve disputes in a collaborative and efficient way.

Our corporate litigators work closely with shareholders, partners, business owners, managers, and corporate teams to develop a cost-effective strategy that works. We have experience litigating matters in front of local, state, district, and federal courts, and when possible, we assist clients in resolving matters out of court through alternative dispute resolution methods.

We excel at navigating our clients through a range of matters including creditor's rights, partnership and shareholder disputes, contractor claims, consumer finance litigation, enforcing and challenging employment contracts, noncompete and nondisclosure agreements, employee dishonesty and fraud, labor and employment issues, wage and hour claims, and commercial real estate disputes.
