NILES·BARTON & WILMER LLP

Commercial Sales and Leases

Commercial purchase/sales and lease transactions are often complex and may require quick response, expertise, strong negotiation skills, attention to detail and troubleshooting. That's why our commercial sales and lease attorneys have a reputation for providing high quality legal services. We approach each real estate transaction with a comprehensive strategy to close the deal by anticipating likely stumbling blocks so as to minimize complications.

Our commercial sales and lease attorneys work closely with our corporate lawyers and litigation team to provide a full range of legal services from financing and contract negotiation to dispute resolution. We represent and work with local, national and international clients, including real estate developers, lenders, investors, property managers, brokers, and design professionals.
